been concluded on Saturday afternoon, and the first witness put on by the missal of the case, upon the ground that the indictment was defective in that it did not charge the commission of any specific offense.

The motion was denied and the defendant, dernard, was put upon the stand. He was asked only one question by his counsel, and that was as to whether he had ever committed the offense charged. Bernard said that he had not. He was a sick man, he said, T. D. McGlasson, city. and he had employed Sylveria Zunica as a nurse. She had never slept in the same room with him, even, and at the City of Paris store had occupied an alcove opening upon the corral at the rear of the building. With his evidence, the case of the defense was closed, and Assistant District Attorney Wilson opened the argument on behalf of the United States. He was followed by Mr. Rouse for the defense, the case being closed for the prosecution by District Attorney Jeffords.

The judge's charge was delivered, and the case given to the jury at 3:09. The court then took a recess, and at 5 o'clock re-assembled upon the announcement that the jury had agreed upon a verdict. They had really agreed upon two verdicts, which were handed by the fore-

The second verdict read:
"We, the jury, find the defendant, recommend her to the mercy of the Court."

The jury was then dismissed, and Judge Kibby announced that he would set today, at 1:30 P. M., as the time for passing sentence.
